IMPORTANT NOTICE

Smardale Gill Viaduct is a historic Listed Monument cared for by a charitable Trust.

The footpath across the viaduct is a “permissive path”, at the discretion of the Trustees. It is NOT a Public Right of Way.

ACCESS IS FOR RESPONSIBLE WALKERS ONLY,
AND IS AT THEIR OWN RISK.

ACTIVITIES such as BRIDGE JUMPING, BUNGIE JUMPING and ABSEILING are STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

Attaching belay points (tying ropes) to the railings is unsafe and may cause damage to the structure.

Northern Viaduct Trust will NOT accept liability for injuries caused by unapproved activities.

Northern Viaduct Trust and Cumbria Wildlife Trust visitors to Smardale Gill are requested to report any such damaging and dangerous activities, giving as much detail as possible.
